When jurisdiction is not founded solely on diversity, venue is proper in the district in which (1) any defendant resides, if all of the defendants reside in the same State, (2) the district in which a substantial part of the events or omissions giving rise to the claim occurred, or a substantial part of property that is the subject of the action is situated, or (3) a judicial district in which any defendant may be found, if there is no district in which the action may otherwise be brought. See 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b).

The acts complained of in this complaint occurred in Amador County, which is in the Eastern District of California. Furthermore, the three named defendants all reside in the Eastern District of California. Venue, therefore, properly lies in the Eastern District of California. See 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b).
